

LANCE E. CRAPPELL, CPA

Lance has been in the accounting profession for approximately eighteen years, both in the industry with a publicly traded corporation, and in public accounting. His years of experience have provided him with an extensive knowledge base in designing and implementing systems and controls, financial statement audits and small business consulting. Lance's experience also includes mergers, acquisitions and sales of closely held companies; construction contract accounting and taxation; corporate and individual taxation; estate planning; representation of clients before the Internal Revenue Service; various financial services; and management consulting, including "controllorship by the hour" services. Lance's objective is to cater his services to his clients' needs, thus providing them with the tools and advice necessary to be successful and profitable in today's dynamic business environment.